

ENBIS Next-Gen Session

Reliability, maintenance and safety in the data-driven era

Granada, 28-29 May 2026

As part of the ENBIS Spring Meeting, a special session for PhD students (ENBIS Next-Gen Session) will be organized. This session will be an excellent opportunity for doctoral students to

- 1. Present the current progress of their PhD research
- 2. Share ideas and challenges with peers
- 3. Receive feedback from senior researchers in this area

Application submission deadline: March 6.

PhD students interested in participating in this session should:

- 1. Submit their abstract via the conference website (scan the QR code or click here)
- 2. Send an email to the session organizer, Antonio Piscopo (antonio.piscopo@unina.it), including a short CV.
